

I am an avid cell phone user. However, I do NOT want the use of cell phones to be permitted on airborne aircraft due to the negative impact of a bunch of ringing phones and talking people in close quarters. Please let us harried air travelers keep the relative peace and quiet we have now. Don't add to our burdens!